This Code of Conduct applies to MSA Directors whenever they are acting in their capacity as an MSA Director.

- 12. undertake diligent analysis of all proposals and matters placed before the Directors.
- 13. acknowledge and embrace decisions of the Directors when communicating with third parties, irrespective of their own personal views.
- 14. treat colleagues, members, and employees of MSA with respect, courtesy, honesty, and fairness, having proper regard to their interests, opinions, rights, safety, and welfare.
- 15. show respect for the opinions of other Directors and allow each Director a fair and reasonable opportunity to contribute to discussion and decision making.
- 16. not engage in conduct that would likely bring discredit upon MSA or bring the Director or MSA into disrepute, or would constitute conduct unbecoming of a Director of MSA

- 17. not abuse, harass, bully, intimidate, discriminate, threaten, or victimise other Directors, colleagues, members and/or employees of MSA.
- 18. promote and encourage diversity, equality and inclusiveness in decision making and throughout MSA.
- 19. at all times exemplify the MSA values and actively conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the critical statutory, cultural and leadership role of a director of MSA.
- 20. comply with the spirit as well as the letter of the law and the principles in this Code of Conduct

3 Breach of the Code of Conduct

A breach of this Code may be considered serious misconduct and require formal investigation and further action being taken.

In some situations, a breach of this code may result in detriment to MSA, and the Director may be liable for their actions under civil and criminal laws.

If a Director suspects that a breach of the Code of Conduct has occurred or will occur, he or she must report that breach to the President/Chair of the Board. All reports will be acted upon and kept confidential.
